FROM THE EAST.....

Brethren and Ladies:

As I reminisced over the past year, the realization that I would soon be the Junior Past Master of Magnolia Park Lodge became apparent for the first time. Also, I realized the importance of the Lodge to my life. It is the Lodge that represents those features that are enduring and that one searches for in their lifetime. It's the loyalty, faithfulness, dependability that has been instilled in the officers over the years. Each officer is dedicated to keeping alive the comradery among the brethren and striving to keep up the high standards of Masonry.

As I turn over the keys to the Temple and relinquish the station of Master I somehow feel a loss but know I have lost nothing but instead have renewed old friendships, made many new friends and have cherished memories that will stay with me forever. To serve as the head of an organization that has been supported so well by the members, their ladies, friends, and concordant bodies has been a pleasure. Also, I have the knowledge that I was blessed with a great team of officers each of whom I hold in the highest respect.

In closing my brethren I ask that you continue to support your Lodge and incoming officers with the same enthusiasm as you have done in the past. I'm looking forward to everyone's presence at the Annual Installation of Officers and your continued support through the year 2009.

Fraternally, Don M. Johnstone, P.M., Worshipful Master

SECRETARY'S CORNER.....

Dear Brethren:

I want to thank all those who have sent in their dues. They are due on the first of January and I encourage each of you to get them in as soon as you can. (It makes it a lot easier on me). There are still a few who haven't paid 2008 dues. To avoid suspension, you need to pay your dues. Of course, if this will cause you financial difficulties, the lodge can help, but you need to let us know.

Fraternally, Wayne Torgerson, P.M., Secretary

Hi Gals:

Well gals this is my last article for the Trestle board as Don's term as Master of Magnolia Park Lodge No. 618 is coming to an end. My how quickly the time has gone! Hope you enjoyed the diversified programs we shared during the year. They turned out to be a real challenge, one that I enjoyed putting together for you gals. Your loyalty meant a great deal to Don and me and is something we will never forget.

For the last Stated Meeting I felt we should share our companionship by playing Bingo together. This way we are in close contact with each other and can spend any spare time we might have about little, but oh so important happenings during the past year.

To all of you, I extend heartfelt thanks and appreciation in making 2008 an unforgettable year for me.

Shirley Johnstone, Master's Wife
